Introducing Mark Henderson

Mark is based in our Christchurch office; he is also available for an appointment in any of our offices.

Mark joined Corcoran French's Litigation Team in 2004. He started his legal career in Dunedin. He then worked for four years in the UK as an in-house lawyer for the London Fire and Emergency Planning Authority where his work included public inquiries, civil claims and prosecutions.

Mark acts for a range of clients from individuals through to companies in all courts and tribunals. His work includes leaky home claims, debt recovery, construction disputes, shareholder and commercial disputes, and other civil cases
